Roses are red, violets are blue. Find this historic fountain to solve your first clue. Then take a picture of you (since you rhymes with clue, and selfies give a great point of view).

CLUE 1

Watch your fingers! These Blomquist natives have a taste for meat. But don't bug out, they prefer insects to you. Capture them mid-meal, or give us your best bug-eating impression.

CLUE 2

As you walk through the Gardens, find your favorite spot for future studying/relaxing. Many areas like the Fisher Amphitheater and Piedmont Prairie have Wi-Fi.

FIND YOUR SPOT

Don't be coy. They may be fishy, but these Terrace Gardens residents love attention. Take a picture near their home imitating their funny faces.

CLUE 3

A tree. A meteorological formation. A landform. A body of water. Find the garden that brings these elements together in harmony, and give us your best meditative pose.

CLUE 4

It's where we produce produce. Cornfused? Lettuce head to our most delicious garden, where the fruits of our labor are donated to local charities. Photograph your favorite veg.

CLUE 5

The events, concerts and weddings at this geometric amphitheater are more than all right (and sometimes a-cute!) Reenact a concert by playing air guitar or a wedding with a kiss.

CLUE 6

Duke Gardens offers a wealth of student events and experiences throughout the year. Check our website for the latest.
